

Taylor Coburn

Taylor Coburn is a junior in high school in Falls Church, Virginia. She is a runner, basketball player, and vice president for Best Buddies at her school, a club that spreads awareness and supports inclusion of people with intellectual or developmental disabilities.

She joined the Junior Board to advocate for an important cause and support those who have lost loved ones to the flu.